

Figure 4. Average SRT scores in dB for the four test conditions including 95% confidence intervals. All conditions are unilateral, with the phone signal in one ear only. The “X” shows the median and the horizontal blue bars mark the interquartile ranges. The error bars represent the maximum and minimum scores for each condition.

Published April 22nd, 2014