

Figure 5. The ReSound Smart app can be downloaded to the iPhone. In addition to remote control functionality, it has features that let users save settings for specific locations, check battery status, and look up information on operation and maintenance of the hearing aids, among other things. It even helps them find their ReSound LiNX hearing aids should they have been misplaced.

Published April 22nd, 2014