I hope you all had a Merry Christmas and a belated Happy New Year to all! The 2015 year was an interesting year for Canadian Audiology. We saw new faces on the industry side, some old faces changing positions, a truly amazing CAA conference (the committee should be thanked over and over again), and some interesting developments south of the border. I chose to make this submission a potpourri to reflect on 2015.

Have a great 2016! Happy reading!
